My dear Mrs. Gurgu -

Your note recd today. in reply will say I am in deep distress about Miss Gurgu's dresses I know she should have had them long ago but my disappointments have been many. now the pongee has been finished for several weeks the gingham is done, the red waist very nearly but the white I can not yet get finished until next wk because the white work worker is sick. Shall I send the completed work and then send the white dress in a smaller package after or wait for all. Please let me know at once, I hope they will be satisfactory. for I felt so discouraged about the others. ~~that~~ I have made the gingham on the bias and I think it very pretty, the purple design is carried out to the letter I hope. Trusting that your patience is not altogether exhausted.

I am sincerely & humbly yours
C. K. Boyd.
