

Jamesport, Mo.

June 5, 1891.

Mr. William H. Fouquet.

Mayville,

N.Y.

Dear Sir:—As a young and constant reader of the "Bygones Notes" and an ardent admirer of your writings, I address you.

Please inform me where I may obtain your books "A Fool's Errand", "Bucks without straw" and "Hat parshears". I feel my lack of information on these subjects. I remain your obedient servant.

Isa C. Williams.