

713 Park av. Hot Springs. Ark.
July 5 - 1891.

Judge Longmire.
Jr. Sr.

You must let me say your reply on the Cleveland subject is what a most admirable production my heart beats joyously over it.

I must thank you for improving some of the lines & sent you sending them out to do a little better. I would like to say much more, but you don't visit home, & in my home paper I cannot say much, for it would soon find its way into prints here when some high toned gentlemen (?) have much more that would be glad to make me trouble.

I am in a quiet place, easy of access, & I want next to peace for my health.

Enclosed I send a dollar for a copy of "Pactatus Primi" Saptoym ~~to~~ the publisher.

I would like all your works, but poor health & sacrificed for the Union leave me only a small income.

God bless you for your masterly productions in the Inter-ocean, which I read with great pleasure & profit.

The great trouble is to get a large money loving people to read & think & act.

Will the "Farquhar Alliance" be a tool of the South in '92, & throw the election into a democratic House? Such is the expectation of the South if the democrats don't carry the election alone.

Very Respectfully -

Augustus Hammond.
