Dear Mrs. Tourgee:

Your note of the 22nd is at hand.

It is a simple matter to make up the "Estiman" account & I am very glad to do it. The only trouble is that at this time of year our collections are in a sort of "trance", while our payments, owing to manufacturing for the fall, are heavy. While the amount involved is not large it had not been included in my calculations and is just "one more straw". I will

Enclose the statement here with, and am sure you will not object if I ask you to wait for the check until the latter part of next week.

When we made the arrangement for Judge's "Eastern" you suggested that we should deduct, in each settlement, one half the amt. due, and apply it towards the charge against the Judge for law books. I find that the amount is more than double the amt. of the Judge's balance - so we can credit the whole of the latter.

The account, then, will stand

amt due you	4	397.13
Less Judge's balance	4	182.53
Due you		214.60
		<hr/> <hr/>

Yours sincerely,
Frank H. Bell
