Dear Sir

I being a constant reader of the inter-ocean. Please permit me the privilege of asking you to please send me the History of the Calvin Fairbanks days of slavery or put me on the method of where I can procure it yours very respectfully
W. H. Lewis

You can get Mr Fairbanks's book by addressing him at Angelica, Allegany Co N.Y. and enclosing $1.00 for book ^{and} 10 cts for postage.

It takes every one's breath with its simple murders = ness.

Yours
