Mr Editor

Inter Ocean Chicago, Sir

I see in your last weekly where a murder had been committed 8 years ago, & it seems as they have convicted the wrong man. if Brown done the murder as he says he did, & Grey always claimed to be innocent & has served 8 years in the pen. for a deed he never done. Now will he ever get anything for his service or will that 8 years of his life go for naught

I would like to write a few lines of praise for your paper if I could but I can't.

I will just say that the Bystander is correct in every word I think. I was raised in the South & if he has ever wrote a word about the race question that was not correct I have ever failed to see it. would to god that every northern paper had just such a writer
a subscriber
