

Horace E. Deming,
Walter S. Logan,
Salter J. Clark,
Lindley Vinton,
Charles M. Demond,
Arthur E. Walbrutt.

Law Offices of
Deming & Logan,
58 William Street.
COMMERCIAL UNION BUILDING.

Telephone, "4893 Cortlandt."

New York October 29, 1891.

Hon. Albion W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Sir:-

Your favor of the 19th instant to our Mr. Logan was duly received. As you desire to have us attend to the case of Blair vs. Tourgee, we will do so, but it will be extremely dangerous to go to trial without your presence. We shall, therefore, be obliged, if the case comes on during your absence, to postpone it until your return, and we do not imagine that there will be any great difficulty in staving the case off. Please notify us as soon as you learn the probable time of your return to the East in order that we may then make arrangements to have the case disposed of.

In regard to the matter of a fee, owing to your intimate relations with our Mr. Logan, we shall not expect the fee to be a very large one, but if you can find it convenient to send us enough to cover our disbursements and a reasonable amount for our services, we shall find it extremely convenient.

Very truly yours,

Deming & Logan