My dear Judge:-

I am glad to know there is a prospect of your going on the interstate commission. A commission needing strong men of original ability, and therefore a commission for which you are well fitted.

I write Deming & Logan to-day with reference to the motion, not disclosing the real reason, but saying there are personal reasons why the case should be put over.

What fish stories those were which you told the readers of the Cosmopolitan!

Very hastily your friend,

To

Hon. A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.
