Dear Judge: The evening paper contains an item of unusual interest to the members of our household. It says you will lecture here Jan. 8.

We want and expect the pleasure of entertaining you while you are in Rockford. We shall be much disappointed if anything arises to prevent.

If our young son is himself your sleep will be undisturbed. He has been himself ~~with~~ without a break the whole of his life.

We think probably you will be on the way to the coast when you

Come here, and that Aunt Emma and Lodie will probably be with you, to Chicago at least.
Could not they come on to Rockford? We are but 2 hours and twenty minutes from Chicago by the Illinois Central.

Yours sincerely
Ed. Hollister
