

THE NATIONAL BANK OF WESTFIELD,

Westfield, N.Y. Dec. 4, 1891.

Mrs. Emma K. Tourgee:

Dear Mrs. Tourgee,

Yours of the 3d inst., is received, and I will instruct Mr. Cipperly to-day to let you have $900, payable as suggested in your letter. I suppose you will sign the notes and Miss Kilbourne will endorse them; also give Mr. Cipperly a letter signed by the Judge and yourself instructing the Inter Ocean people to send your weekly checks to Skinner, Minton & Co., payable to their order. We will apply $50 from each check upon the notes, and will credit Miss Kilbourne the balance.

The interest on the $4000 B & M, was last paid in May, 1890. The amount due in January will be $400. Upon payment by you of $200, I will endorse the full amount of $400 on the B & M. I have informed Mr. Cipperly that you will pay $200 on this account, and the balance due on the note made a month ago.

I hope you will have a very pleasant winter, and that it will be of great benefit to you and the Judge. I am sorry not to be able to see him before your departure.

Yours very truly,
