

John W. Barwell,
The Bookery Building.

P. O. Box 1012.

Chicago, Ill., Dec 7th 1891

Judge Albion W. Tourgee
Mayville N.Y.

Dear Sir

Should your advisory Board take in any but those of National reputation and if you are in want of good timber I take the liberty of recommending that stalwart old abolitionist and radical Swedenborgian Prof. G. H. Mariner Clark St. Chicago as first class material for further examination.
Assuring you of my hearty sympathy in the work.

I am

Yours truly
J. W. Barwell