Mr. Albion W. Lougee,
Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Sir:-

We mail
you herewith, in another
cover, a copy of our book
"What It Costs, or Debtor and Creditor."

We are readers of the Bytander's Notes, and assure you
they strike the right chords to suit us. We should like very much your opinion of this our first work on this line.

We hope you will find it interesting, and that you can conscientiously "pay a good word for it."

The book is just out - you are the first person of whom we have asked an opinion since its publication; Mrs J. A. Logan read the MS, you will find her letter concerning it in front part of book.

In reply at your earliest convenience will - oblige

Yours very truly
L. Ed. C. Sullivan
