Dear Mr. Tunge

It is too bad that you should be so disappointed - and they too! But there must be something good to work out of it, though it be not yet visible. In fact it is in just these dark passages that our Faith is to come in play. Or, to put it in more worldly form, let me quote the immortal Mark Tabely, & say "Now is the time to be jolly!"

If not "jolly," I know that life has taught you to be.
None when you have had (and used) the occasion to help those near & dear to you through hard places. May your share of sunshine be reflected back for the comfort of your own heart!

Yours sincerely,

R Howard
