WESTFIELD, N. Y. Dec. 16, 1891.

Mrs. Emma K. Tourgee,

Dear Mrs. Tourgee:

Upon my return from New York I find yours of the 7th inst., and as requested, I return to you the letter to the Inter Ocean people.

I am very sorry that you were unable to accompany the Judge and your daughter, and sincerely hope it may be possible for you to go later, for I have no doubt the trip would do you a great deal of good.

Yours respectfully,
