

A Loud Call.

We find that modern sectarian theologians oppose the truth as much to-day as the schismatic ritualists did in the event prior to Christ's first advent upon the earth. The comforter has come and has given us an understanding to teach and judge among the nations of priestcrafts.—Zech. 3: 7. Two of the world's prominent men, Rev. Dr. Dixon and A. S. Landon, thru the secular press, say that unless divine appointment comes to the nations' rescue their doom is sealed. They evidently see that the signs of the times referred to in Luke 21 are right upon us as a thief in the night. The wise and prudent shall not understand, but ye in the light shall know. The nations always scoffed at the premonitory warnings of God's few people, as in Noah's time. See all over the world the manifestation of God's judgments upon disobedient nations. Strife in the political and religious heavens; famine, pestilence, earthquakes, floods, gales, cyclones, destructive fires, rapid increase of crimes, insanity, suicide, soul-destroying religion contrary to Jesus Christ's authority. According to the Bible God's people are to be exempt from the foregoing destruction. See Job 5: 19-24 and the 21st Psalm. We have had eighteen centuries of sectarian priestcraft religion "for revenue only." Now suppose we substitute Christ's religion therefor the next one thousand years, with death and hell disannulled.—Isa. 28: 18.

Read Rev. 21: 1-5, 5: 10, as to the condition of the millennial reign of righteousness and peace here on earth. Sky-ascension theories of priestcrafts have squandered thru their leaders about enough of God's gold and silver without showing the fruits of Christ's peaceable kingdom. The idea that you must join the Methodist or any other sect in order to get up yonder when you die finds no sanction in the lids of the Bible.
