DENVER, COLORADO,

Jan 6th ..... 1892

Dear Sir:

Your favor of the 25th at hand. I was sorry to hear that you had so long an illness, but I feared when I saw you that you would not be well for some days at least. I would have been glad to have extended some courtesies to you, but did not wish to annoy you until you got well.

Our weather continues mixed.

Your man Hill is developing along the line you marked out for him. I am afraid the Republicans of New York state will be considered by their political friends of the country at large as responsible for his success and their injury.

With regards

Yours truly
 R. W. Woodbury
