

MANDEL BROS.

ADVERTISING

R. W. JENNINGS.

CHICAGO, STATE ST. THROUGH TO WABASH AVE.
NEW YORK, 107 TO 113 FRANKLIN ST.
PARIS, 20 AND 22 RUE RIGNER.
CABLE ADDRESS, IDOLNORTH.

CHICAGO, 1. 8. 1897

Mr. Albion T. Torgue

Dear Sir:

Some time in the 70's I was in Hon. John P. Mansfield's employ and was on the same steamer
with him going to Europe. Among other books I bought to read on the way was the "Fool's Errand." I loaned it to Mr. Mansfield and he interested him very much indeed.

There is no question, but, what the Republican party must wake up to the question of protecting its voters
in their constitutional rights, or die
a desecrated death.

He must have more of the Lodge and Hoar spirit.

Mr. Mansfield I know, has the tenderest sympathy for the wrongs of the poor people South, he has, I know suffered on account of them.

He has been in position to know and
feel, the extent of the bitter hatred

MANDEL BROS.

ADVERTISING

R. W. JENNINGS.

CHICAGO, STATE ST. THROUGH TO WABASH AVE.
NEW YORK, 107 TO 115 FRANKLIN ST.
PARIS, 20 AND 22 RUE RICHEP.
CABLE ADDRESS, IDOLNORTH.

CHICAGO,

189

of the South, toward the Abraham Lincoln
party of Liberty and Freedom.
His name wd be a tower of strength to your cause
That seems to me to be the very essence of cruelty, is to hear
and know what is going on,
thousands weeping, eyes, even tears
of blood, and stand idle, because a greater party has lost the conscience which gave it birth.

I again enclose you a small
check to further your holy cause

Sincerely
R. W. Jennings

MANDEL BROS.

ADVERTISING

R. W. JENNINGS

CHICAGO, STATE ST. THROUGH TO WABASH AVE.
NEW YORK, 107 TO 110 FRANKLIN ST.
PARIS, 89 AND 89 BIS RIVER ST.
CABLE ADDRESS, IDOLNORTH.

CHICAGO,

189

Mr. Temple
has permission if
these drawings to publish
them in his notes
and furthermore
if I can be of any assistance in this
part of the work
say the words.
R. W. Jennings