

NOTHING BUT THE ADDRESS TO BE ON THIS SIDE.

Mr. J. T. Robinson
Hillsdale
Ky.

FRANKFORT, KY., JANUARY 14, 1892.

DEAR SIR:

The committee of colored men, appointed by the recent meeting held here, to protest against a separate coach system, will meet the Railroad Committee of the Senate and House of Representatives, Jan. ^{Friday} 29, 1892, at two o'clock. Your presence is desired, with any petition you may have from citizens of your county. If you can not be present, forward a mass-meeting petition.

Yours for the race,

E. E. UNDERWOOD, M. D., Secretary.

C. C. MONROE, Chairman.
