Jan. 22nd, 1892

Dear Mr Ruskef: I send you herewith a review of "Old Harry,"—and a letter from the reviewer,—a stranger, to us.—which I thought you might like to read— I have seen no notice of the book in the Inter-Ocean. I think if Mr Howells' had written it— it would have been considered a wonderful production.— But the poor Judge, don't seem to be "in the swim."

Please return, both letter and review to me.
I have directed ^{and} stamped the envelope, so it will be no trouble to you. We think the Judge is getting better daily,—but it is a hard matter to get over the grip. Yours
