

"The Truth shall make you Free."

HEADQUARTERS,
CLEVELAND O.

Mrs. ELLEN J. PHINNEY, President,
168 Crawford Street, Cleveland, O.

Mrs. HARRIET G. WALKER, Vice-President,
803 Hennepin Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

Mrs. HOWARD M. INGHAM, General Secretary,
2 Walnut Street, Cleveland, O.

Mrs. FLORENCE MILLER, Recording Secretary,
810 Grand Ave., East DeMoines, Iowa.

Mrs. C. CORNELIA ALFORD, Treasurer,
315 Monroe Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 23 1892

Dear Mrs. Lougee,

I wish to thank you for your kindness in writing me so fully in regard to your husband, whom I know your mind must be overburdened with care.

I am so sorry to learn of his illness and consequent disappointment in his western trip. You both have my kindest sympathies. I do hope he will soon be entirely recovered.

We are sorry to lose his contribution to our book.

Very cordially
Sadie W. Ingham

9/10/92