Dear Mr. Tongue

I didn't forget to write about "Fool & Bricks" in paper, only I let it slide along in case anything was more said about the pamphlet, whose issue I did not know was decided on.

You can see by the ads how many Fool & Bricks we have in hand in paper (60 cts) We have a number of Bricks in sheets for paper binding; but none of the other books except in cloth. You might advertise F & Bk. at 50 instead of 60 cts; and we would supply them to you at 25¢ (special).

Mr. Bell says he has not had any noticeable

Calls for Fool lately.

I handed the M.C.
papers to Mr. Elroy of the N.Y. Tribune & he said he would make a notice of the circumstances wh. he deemed much interested in.

Yours faithfully,

J. Howard
