My Dear Sir

Yesterday

my time was entirely occupied by appointment so that I did not open the Int. Ocean tel now as usual turned to the Notes, considering them the most important of anything the papers have<sup>had</sup> to offer, since the Confederates took to the saddle again, not forgetting the Chillian Embroidie & many other matters of interest & importance) and fully realizing the need of some "University Extension" along the line of Constitutional life & liberty as well as that of general education I hasten to order a hund. copies of your pamphlet trusting that your pen has not lost its way, that your late indisposition has not impaired your mind, hoping that the "Lord of hosts" Lincoln's ever "present help" will bless his word & that Lincoln's hosts of hirelings, devotes & converts may thereby be prevail-

- Ed upon to determine that he shall not have lived suffered and died in vain; not only in vain but to an evil most accursed purpose; since if after his great labor love, his god-like sacrifice & charity the condition of his country this people are to be infinitely worse than before he toiled & sought, as man never toiled & sought, surely twice better he had never lived, or living that his majestic mind had early lost its cunning, to his tongue <sup>clear</sup> to the roof of his mouth before it thrilled his countrymen with those wisely & reasonable tirades against human oppression injustice & bondage - As I can't get in the bank I send check for $9.75 which if it costs much to collect you may return & I will send draft or p.o. d.o. In either case you need not send more of the fruit than the enclosed I will pay until the cash is free. for to you for citizens Rights, the Constitution & Law order -
