Dear Sir:-

We are trying to build up a library in our school. And knowing the interest you take in the education and advancement of the colored people, we are encouraged to write you, thinking you may be willing to help them in this way.

Mr George W. Cable was kind enough, a short time since, to send us some of his books and other friends have been as good.
Should you care to make any donations another "Yankee Schoolma'am" can assure you they will be appreciated.

Very Truly
(Miss) Helen L. Hanson
Librarian
