Mrs. A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Mrs. Tourgee:

Pardon my delay in acknowledging yours of the 30th ult. The sketches which you then sent I regret are not found suited to our present needs, and are returned under separate cover in this mail. What matter (aside from some special syndicate contracts) The Express buys has to be restricted for the most part to subjects touching the news of the territory in which most of its readers live. We are hardly in the market for general matter such as this excellent article that you send.
