PHILADELPHIA Mar. 5th. 1895.

Hon. A. W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.

My Dear Judge Tourgee:-

Yours of Mar. 1st. is before me. Allow me to say in answer thereto that we have already written to two of the Journals referred to and will write to the others at once. Whether the circumstances of publication as outlined by you will make any difference or not, I am at this writing not prepared to say. Knowing you, as doubtless all of them will do, the taking of you on trust, as it were, will not seem so great a matter as under other circumstances and for other men, it might be.

I do not wish to enter largely into the subject-matter of your letter as a whole at this time but simply to advise you that we are working the subject up and will let you know at the earliest possible moment.

Very truly yours,

Diot. P.L.J.
