My dear Sir.

I again write to ask the great favor of you to come and give your course of lectures to the classes of the Buffalo Law School on Legal Ethics

You lectured last in 1893, so the two classes this year will be new men to you. We have forty six men in the school and we feel very much encouraged. The courses of instruction are more regularly given than formerly, and we have a pleasant lecture room, in a very convenient locality.

I trust you will again favor us, and arrange to remain in Buffalo sufficient length of time to enable you to give a daily lecture until your course is completed.

Please state the time which will be agreeable to you. Our commencement this year will take place on Friday May 24th.

Yours Respectfully
Orrin Townsend
Secretary.
