My dear Wife;

I have been at work in the Office all day. Mr Shier came in early and I told him what I thought he ought to know, and gave him my letter to read. He telephoned me afterwards of a meeting at Moots' office tomorrow. Then I went out the matter of clearing the way for our working. Read proof of Min's internal folder, &c, and put matter in hand.

Things are moving smoothly. Only three subs today but many inquiries. They have got me a good desk in
