This morning we packed & expressed to your address, a box of flowers for Easter, after which, we drove out over the plains, through miles & miles of wild flowers of all shapes & colors, ~~gold & orange~~ <sup>predominantly</sup> ~~would you believe it?~~ ~~we did not~~ gather one, but left them in all their glory, & will dream about them - we are all well, we are enjoying a most lovely spring, the air is heavy with the perfume of fruit blossoms our one cherry tree is a shocking white for the first time, we're proud of it - & hope it will bear fruit - as well we are interested in "The Basis", & after showing it to some friends will have it placed in the reading room at the library to introduce it. kindest regards to all
