

The Manhattan Republic,

JAS. P. EASTERLY, Editor and Publisher.

THE BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM IN RILEY COUNTY.

JOB PRINTING DONE PROMPTLY AT REASONABLE PRICES.

LEGAL NOTICES PRINTED AT REASONABLE RATES.

MANHATTAN, KANS., July 22, 1895.

Hon. W. M. Bourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.,
My Dear Sir:

I have been receiving The Basis as an exchange for several weeks and have made a few brief quotations from it, giving proper credit. Last week I made a more extended quotation fully intending to credit same; owing to the work of a new "hand" in the office, credit was not given. This week I shall make the fullest reparation I can and endeavor to do full justice to The Basis. By the way, I notice that The Basis is copy-

The Manhattan Republic.

JAS. P. EASTERLY, Editor and Publisher.

THE BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM IN RILEY COUNTY.

JOB PRINTING DONE PROMPTLY AT REASONABLE PRICES.

LEGAL NOTICES PRINTED AT REASONABLE RATES.

MANHATTAN, KANS., _____ 1895.

righted. Do you intend the copyright to bar quotations with credit?

I like your good citizenship views and plans so well that I will quote much, by your leave, giving full credit.

I shall be governed by your wishes.

I like your manly stand on the question of lynching and against party bosses, and favoring the divorcement of local and national politics.

I do not agree with your plan of silver banks. I favor postal savings banks. Yours very cordially, Jas. P. Easterly.
(over)

Personal,

The writer was one of the members of the Colorado State Teachers' Association and heard your lecture, "The Coming Crusade," at Denver, about January 1879 or 1880 and afterwards met you one evening in State Superintendent Shattuck's office.

You may remember me, but I doubt it. I have always taken a deep interest in your writings, particularly the "By Stander's Notes," in the Chicago Inter-Ocean, which I have read more than any other of your writings. With best wishes. I am,

Yours truly,
Jas. P. Eastey,