

TO AUTHORS.

It would be quite impossible to accompany the return of a Manuscript with reasons for its rejection. Authors should understand, however, that able critics are employed, to whom the authorship is not divulged, and that literary value is only one of the considerations to be deliberated upon.

BOSTON, August 29 1895

Mrs. A. W. Tourjée

Dear Madam:-
We beg to return the MSS. A Pacific Adyde which you left with us, by American Express, with our regrets that it seems inexpedient to undertake it

Very truly yours,

Roberts Brothers
