CASSELL & COMPANY, LIMITED,
LONDON, PARIS, AND MELBOURNE.

New York, Nov. 14 1895

Adelbert Moot, Esq.,

Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

We are sorry to have to advise you that the book "89" is now practically dead with us, and it seems to be impossible to sell any more.

You will see by the terms of contract that a three months written notice is necessary before cancellation of same, and we hereby give you that notice.

We have in stock 158 copies of the book in paper covers, 131 in cloth and 50 in sheets, and shall be pleased to sell these to you at cost, as per contract. Will you also kindly let us know where we may ship the plates three months hence, as our printers are anxious to get rid of them.

Yours truly,
THE CASSELL PUBLISHING CO.
