

GIDEON P. MACKLIN, A.M.,

1517 WEST SECOND STREET.

DATON, OHIO.

WHAT THEY SAY.

Gideon P. Macklin is as tall, broad, powerful, and grand mentally, morally, and socially as he is physically. He justly ranks among the very ablest public speakers of to-day.
—
EX-GOVERNOR JOHN P. ST. JOHN.

Mr. Macklin has the courage of his deep, intelligent convictions, and the ability to present his views to an audience in a most eloquent and convincing manner.

I. L. KEPHART,
Editor Religious Telescope.

Mr. Macklin is a Christian gentleman, a fine scholar, a logical and profound thinker, and a public speaker of exceptional ability.

T. J. SANDERS,
President Oberlin University.

I am acquainted with Gideon P. Macklin, of Dayton, O., and can recommend him as reliable and worthy of confidence. He is a good thinker, and could be expected to give a sound and instructive lecture.

W. F. McCauley,
President Ohio C. E. Union.

---

LECTURE THEMES.

The following lectures are the result of years of patient thinking. You will do well to hear them. Each lecture is a gem in itself. The subject matter is of excellent quality.

- (1) The Anglo-Saxon and His Destiny.
- (2) The World-Old and World-Wide Conflict.
- (3) The Imperialism of Knowledge.
- (4) Blessings Wrought by the Boys in Blue.
- (5) The American Citizen.
- (6) John the Baptist.
- (7) The Liquor Traffic and What Shall be Done with It.

---

For terms and dates write Mrs. Gideon P. Macklin,
1517 West Second Street, Dayton, Ohio.