THE PROGRESS,

Albert Magnin, Editor.
$1.00 A YEAR.

Darby, Pa. Jan'y 25th 1896

My Dear Judge Many thanks for your favor of 16th inst, the greater part of which I published in Progress of yesterday. Several extra copies of which I mailed you. Apropos of your writing for Progress - I hardly know what I want you to write about. Whatever it may be I want to label it "Sourgee". Your views on anything - anything that it strikes your notion will be interesting. As to how much and how often, that you must determine when I tell you that I have appropriated ten dollars a month to meet what ever comes - little or much. If you can progress on that basis I shall be pleased. If you cannot, I shall be sorry my purse will not allow me to offer more and will have to content myself and readers by

-stealing from "Basis".

"Basis" by the "Basis Pub Co." looks fine, big improvement. I sincerely trust it will pan out to your fullest expectations.

Truly Yrs.
Albert Maguire
