This property now greatly altered and known as the Lehigh Inn, situated on the east shore of the middle Cassadaga Lake, was once known as the Alden House, on the Alden property. In the surrounding grove the Spiritualists from Laona held their first picnic June 15th 1873. These yearly picnics later developed into the great Spiritualist Assembly now held at Lily Hab.

Old Stone House
Sinclairville
Built 1818?
There is a record of a child being born there 1839 Surveyors used the "southeast corner" of this house as their starting point in laying out the village of Sinclairville.

Chautauque Archeology Photograph of Ossuary remains found May 1887 in Spring N.Y. portions of about fifty skeletons, less than half a mile distant, in the early days of settlement, two similar pits were discovered containing about the same number of skeletons. Several caches were also discovered near by - also of fortifications, or remains of stockaded villages, and throughout the region the plow during successive years has upturned innumerable arrow heads and other flint implements.
It is believed that no other portion of the state at date of settlement presented a more numerous or conspicuous array of this character of evidences of its previous native population their habits, customs etc.
