yet - from

you a message last Sunday I have not heard any news from you since then. I am sorry to hear that you are not well. I hope you will soon be better. I am writing you to let you know that I am still thinking of you and hope to hear from you soon.

Dear
to you think me tardy in complying with your request that I should answer your little memorandum but, don't know what your present state has been such that I could not write to you, and, if the thought of you was smothered and it is long since I have seen time yet to stay in St. Paul, which I don't know if it is possible to see as though you were out of the world, most when you get away off on the prairie.

It can be as to as you get this and love of her long you will be in it. I am yours
