

(Cut)
Grand Fowl (Fowl) Exhibition.

Feb. 10th. 1860.

The first in the show is Minerva's pet fowl,
 The "Grand Monarque" of the great genus owl.
 The lessons of Wisdom he never lets slip,
 But preserves an inflexibly stiff upper lip;
 Yet is it not wonderful,—"barring" the sex,—
 That a goddess should fancy our tow-headed Pex?
 There's another bird too of a similar kind,
 Unlike him in figure, but kindred in mind.
 One peeper's arry,— he's a comical scowl,—
 And his notes are so cutting, he's dubbed a Screech Owl.
 The gruntest of Herons, with prominent beak,
 Which, magpie like, chatters the purest of Greek,
 Comes next to our view. His voice, I must own,
 Although "not a grunt", has a strong nasal tone;
 His talons are slender, yet cannot be weak,
 Or, sure, they would weary of picking his beak.
 Here too is an Eagle, the true Roman kind,
 As sound as a mummy in pyramid shrined,
 That merits your notice; and you may espy
 A twinkle of humor within his grey eye.
 Wonder not that he seems in such mighty good cheer;
 He's conning some joke that's been stale for a year.
 Here's an "Army Bird" too, that was hatched at West Point,
 But War's hungry jaws he will sure disappoint,
 For so constantly "Prime Old Virginia" he chews,
 Should a bomb-shell strike near him, he'd spit on the fuse.
 Some delicate nestlings to-night are brought out,
 To show how the old ones have taught 'em to spout.
 You see they're all branded in some sort of way,
 As property should be, when "running astray."
 And, as ever before, the Oudens insist,
 They're an accident right to be first on the list;
 D. E. F.'s spotless scroll you next may espy.
 Then Alpha Delta's crescent gleams bright on the eye;
 And, lastly, the hands of Psi Upsilon glow,
 For the first shall be last, and vice versa, you know.

[The d.d. Prof. takes this opportunity to apologize for the ill arrangement of the regular schemes, and thus adding to the labors of the Mock Scheme Committee.]

Ordo Squawkandi, (See Bulbus, P. 117, Chap. XVI, §44)

Music. - Dirge by the disappointed Juniors, Air, "Death of Gen. Warren."

7 "Juan und Dudu," W(ery) ~~S(I)~~ S(I) ~~S(I)~~

Oh many a storm-tossed mariner,
Has trembled "off the lee,"
But such a downy chick as this
No maiden e'er need flee.

8 "Nursery Babblings," (See Appendix A.) Francis D(ol) Farher.

"Hush, my dear, lie still and slumber,
I earned daddy guards thy bed,
Big musquitos without number,
Sweetly buzz around thy head."

9 "Mother Goose and Plum Puddings." O(ily) H(eaded) Robinson.

How bright the thoughts of childhood throng
When o'er the Future brooding,
But bearded Juniors often long
For "Mother Goose and Pudding."

10 "Stick to the Mock Schemes." W(ander) S(truck) Fly.

Let Professors rant and swear,
And rail at our endeavors;
Such opportunities are rare,
And we'll neglect them never.

Music. - By the Mock Scheme Committee.

"I will neber do te gib it up so, Mr. Brown."

11 "The Oysterman's Ultimatum." M(y) Book 1-staveher, Comfort.

M(y) B(ully) Comfort clever is,
Despite his ugly looking phiz,
But when you get his "ultimatum,"
You'll surely have a "quantum satum"

1 "The Honored Dead." Charles A. Dewy.

In the midst of our grief let us consecrate
a moment to sorrow.

11 made. Between 6, 8, 7.

Between 9 & 10

2 { "Spring Beds and Baby Jumpers" Jesu P(ity) Ludlow.
For these let Ludlow tax his brains,
And his inventive knowledges;
For married he is pledged to be,
The day he gets through college.

3 { "Hog Trespass, or Pig in a Potato Patch." A. (Comic) Show.
Be it enacted and sanctioned by law,
Pigs going astray shall be "pounded" by Shaw.
Music. - Sew-lol-w) on the Swinette, by the Freshmen of Subs. (See Appendix B.)
"Hurry up Sambo,
De hogs am in de corn."

5 { "Blacksmith Shop under the Hill" I(rish) H(omes).
Erin go unum, e pluribus bragh!
A thousand little men like this,
With all his noise and senseless prattle,
Might in a nutshell say their prayers,
Or on an ant might ride to battle.

4 { "Sorghum and the Rural New-Yorker"
G(rand) F(ertilizing)-Gardener).
This speaker will illustrate the recently discovered
method of propagating cabbages by means of Cuttings.

6 { "Yankee Lice, See 'em!" S(harpeyed) Coon.
"O! for some rank mercurial rozet,
Or fell red smeddum,
I'd gie you sic a hearty dose o't.
Wad dress your droddum."

Music. - "Tramp Chorus," by the Congregation. - "Roll, roll rolling home."

Malediction.

✂ The Mock Scheme Committee will now retire to the cheap oyster saloon patronized by the Faculty and the "Pundit Club", and "partake" at the expense of the Freshmen.
