

day in music and Feltie had given me something entirely new and very hard. and I was so anxious to have it perfect when my next lesson came that I forgot to write. One of the young ladies that practiced at the house when I sometimes visit was sick and Feltie told me it might have the piece in the music book all to my self until tea - so as soon as the ladies were excused, I seized my music book and never thought that I had a single hour or that he needed a letter. I was tired with all my night work and with me were beating. Angie asked me what had occurred in my letter to you and when I told her that I had never once thought of you, she I did not deserve a letter for a month, I had no time then to write as the mail goes im-mediately after tea and I thought that you would not get a letter if I wrote so as to send ^{one} letter to go out in Tuesday's mail much sooner than you would one that did not go out till tonight, so this is the reason my Dear why you have had no letter as to Feltie. - I am getting along very nicely in music, have gone every so much ahead of those that commenced with me - and Feltie told me to day that she did think it was at all hard for me and that you might send me a piece of music and I might learn it but she would tell you what one to get - one not so difficult but that I could learn it how my Dear are you not very much delighted? I know you are - I have three hours for practice now and I never am the least bit fatigued with playing - You need have no fears my Dear of my getting to be "only a shadow" for Miss Eldridge has to teach my sheets every time she meets because they are getting so fat. and I know I am that I do though some friends more than I did when I came here. I do not have any headaches now days - and am so happy here

I kept repeating a very good to tonight, the occasion of my
