...of the general...
...all the churches...
...Our Country...
...hundreds of strong...
...and trembling yet...
...Every pulpit...
...recruiting...
...as a duty...
...to God...
...The First Baptist Church...
...such a look of...
...is set upon...
...whom he had...
...like the song...
...and...

...could not...
...set out to...
...likely...
...had been...
...I have...
...to be...
...Quincy is...
...a danger...
...Oh...
...and you could...
...get down...
...my...
...It is...
...very much...
...of you...
...and to...
...I...
...and...

... was transparent to me the
... the confidence which I felt to be
... by rights. Oh, my love, you can hardly
... how my heart beat & my breath
... I cannot say that I am sorry that you
... told me that for a long time I could not get
... of the thought that - that - you had
... suffered any real suffering, but
... in reality you talked and, long
... and wished that my lips - but mine
... were pressed to yours. I know of but one thing
... that has ever brought to any mind feelings
... at all akin to those, and that is when I
... have sometimes tried to imagine the feelings,
... the thoughts of a woman - hearted, passionate, affec-
... tionate man who has had intercourse with a
... woman who gratified his desire merely for the
... sake of money - and then I have always
... thought of the feelings which I had
... known that you suffered and, longed, my lips
... see them, and would as soon have kissed a
... board as have pressed your lips again. But
... I am so glad of course that your love did
... not die with your devotion. Yet perhaps you
... had better have trusted to your first impres-
... sion at the window and abandoned all
... thought of anything but of your own
... and happiness of you & your family.

... the first time that I
... we may say that I
... first you know you must
... ask me to tell you what I think
... I will say nothing at all at
... very long, but I shall tell you
... story whose incidents (if they are
... as they did to mine) will give you
... more forcible than I could make
... or illustration to the many who have
... near or very oft repeated. I shall
... with say it in a strange and
... manner. Last night I
... to No 8 Kent St. number
... young of excitement. He was
... and had been for days
... ago. He had tried every
... himself that he might
... friends, relatives, people
... common but they would
... and he had just given
... could you understand
... I am so glad of course
