Rochester N.Y. July 12, 1861

My Dear friend Emma -

Accept my thanks for your kindness in sending so promptly a note. Also for the likeness.
I will take the best of care of it.
I have not yet written Miss Barnes but shall as soon as I get a letter more settled. I leave Rochester for home tomorrow. If possible I will make you a call this summer. As yet I am somewhat undetermined as to what I shall do. Please excuse this note as I am in great haste

Believe me your friend
Serenus Coon

Remember me to Angie and all.
