

Wilmington N. J. March 11th 1862

I have an idea that you will be somewhat reticent, and as I have not written to you since your visit for two weeks, made, I thought I would write to day. I was quite busy last Saturday and Sunday and should have had a letter or two from you to answer. You see I have made it my mind not to write unless I have something to answer. I don't know if your idea will add to the excitement, but I am as ready as ever to I know I have not been so recently contact since I have seen you as I have been for the last month. Since that was nearly gone to me I am very much better in the moment in mind which is all in school this term, so I nothing to discuss in the evening evening I attend a large party with patrol and never enjoyed myself so much as party in me up. So I am in a and don't know how I do like him. He is as kind and kind to me as though I were his fiancée instead of some one else. I have sat with my pen suspended over my paper some considerable time, wondering if I should write it for you know it is impossible for me to keep anything from you, I don't know but it is to be my fate, it is to be much in the study of the "co. line" as you did. I don't write, I don't know, I don't know but the least bit like you, yet is gentle unlike any other man I ever knew as you are. I don't mean to worrying about you, I don't want to write, but it seems I must let you know something even if I do get scolded sometimes.

I don't think I wish I could visit up in your life, and I would put the quiere piece around me and talk to me. So you was the blessing given and I'll see all about it, if it was good and is just what you wanted to study, and want you to occur, and like I never

of some one else. I have sat with
my pen suspended over my paper
some considerable time, wondering
if I should write it for you know it
is impossible for me to keep anything
from you, I don't know but it is to be
my fate, it is to be much in the study
of the "co. line" as you did. I don't
write, I don't know, I don't know
but the least bit like you, yet is gentle
unlike any other man I ever knew
as you are. I don't mean to
worrying about you, I don't
want to write, but it seems I must
let you know something even if I do get
scolded sometimes.
I don't think I wish I could visit up
in your life, and I would put the
quiere piece around me and talk to
me. So you was the blessing given and
I'll see all about it, if it was good and
is just what you wanted to study, and
want you to occur, and like I never

RECEIVED
MAY 5
N.Y.

Albion W. Longee
Ashtabula Co. Ashtabula
Ohio

May 5/80

May 2nd 62

Bushford

CHAUTAUQUE COUNTY NEW YORK