

Rochester, May 15th 1862.

Dear Bro. George,

Yours of yesterday has been received. — You had better send the pictures on immediately as we are all getting ours taken as rapidly as possible. Do not forget to put your autographs on them. Send twenty for the class (and one for Upsilon Hall, if you will. Parsons (and K. Gilbert) are not going to preserve a set, — you will only have to purchase theirs, instead of furnishing your own for them.

Can you write us a song for Class Day? It comes off very soon. Johnson wants you to write to the air "Plague in India". You remember it?

"Then stand to your glasses steady.

This world is a world of lies." for And we intend to publish something a book of Rochester College songs, for the boys are contributing quite freely, (and we should be most glad to have some of your productions included with the rest.

I write in a great hurry.
We are all "under the weather" at our house. Clark has the Diphtheria quite bad, (and I don't know but we will all have it too in our turn. But if there is any virtue in whiskey we are safe, for Crandall bought a bottle full of it to-day.

For Junior Exhibition 5 Orders 3 Psills, 2 Neutrals, Ind. A. & (and 1 A.K.E, were appointed

Frank Williams lives, when he is at home, at Prattburgh, Steuben Co. I believe he is teaching somenwhere in Wayne Co. at present, but a letter directed to Prattburgh would be forwarded to him I doubt not.

Perhaps more of your photographs will be wanted. If so I will let you know. If you wish to send any additional ones to friend here, I offer my services as messenger for you.
— You will have buy eleven or twelve pictures besides those you will get by exchange.

But I must close. I renew my promise to "write soon." I am going out of town this week to remain a few days.

In great haste

Yours - R. M. Tuttle
