Anna declares she has not laughed so much as she has for the last week, in two months and I am quite sure I have not. I do not wonder you would get cured of the blues on coming here. I have heard so much of your visits here that I feel quite well acquainted with Albin Souper of 182. I am sorry that I did not know from you, at the time, of your suffering. I might have saved you some pains on my account Alas! but it is your own fault. They all thought I filled it and if you don't print, I will write to you. I liked Miss not feel badly about it. The Bessie quite well. She was quite were all very anxious about you disappointed in my looks, as after the parties but hoped for she had imagined I had the best. He has heard nothing about eyes and hair, but she from you as yet but expects ~~to~~ thought after all I looked just as safe. How wide you are as sweet and good as I was.

Sunday I and told you of the After tea we all went up to messy time we had had on your room and the girls re-Saturday undoubtedly, and counted over our specks then about the letter from Pizzini. I heard of the hidden cards think I will send it to you for's putting on Bessie's robe de as Anna and I cannot admit "de la". You may fancy -gave who may keep the letter we laughed some. Bessie told Your having it will settle all the dressing gowns and despite. He visited at Mrs to hang and <sup>had</sup> well it become Mamma Friday and had a the owner and did wish I very pleasant time. At tea - could only have seen him even Miss Bessie playfully gave me it. The bed and curtains made you seat saying she had never met the letter. Darling thought to send Emma occupy. I came away feeling a little odd

Dear Brother

I am only going to write a line when Emma the post goes away I will write you a good long letter. She keeps me talking the whole time. I would like to hear from you write soon to you
