Saturday P.M.

My dear Husband, I rec^d the enclosed letter from Lizzie, and I am sure you will be glad to read it and I send it.
I have just read your letter written from the Reg^t. Lo bad that matters are in such a state. but do not, my Darling, do anything hasty. I should not say indeed for I don't want you to do so, and I know you will do nothing unwisely yourself. I shall not forget to pay for you and it is so sweet to pay for my husband. even though I have a lonely fellow after it.
I have scarcely had time to be lonely for we have been so busy housecleaning I tried to remember but with caution, and not work too hard. I rec^d $80.00 from your Handwritten notes on the left margin, including "I rec'd the enclosed letter from Lizzie" and "I have just read your letter written from the Regt".

father yesterday he was getting quite anxious about the money if we so long getting here. My week Dixie from Louisville; I had a nice long letter from him before came. I think, dear, I shall hardly miss my husband while I have a good father to see to all my wants he is just as kind as can be and we shall do nicely. I do not think I shall go to Giddle. Angie writes Gattie Barnes has left and there are but one or two old students there besides Angie, says she does not think returning by Brookport & Brookton, do you expect I don't think it would pay to go. Angie wants should really, thanks I must now, but don't think I shall she will be home so soon.

I don't want to go away from home while the girls, Mary and Angie are at home which will be for a few months. By that time we tell better what I think best do. Don't worry about me. I shall be contented and happy when they come. I to say the journey was all I could possibly spare for some time. I my husband, for his kind care, will write a long letter and send it Pho's soon. Did you take the long my old mule's like a queer story while off there
