My Dear Wife:

I have heard nothing from you as yet and am getting very anxious indeed. If I were not busy from 7 A.M. till 12 p.m. I think I should be crazy over the matter but I am - oh so busy - morning, night and noon. Our reception here today was grand will read a paper tomorrow - Have been interrupted twice & will now have time only for a few lines -

I am to make a speech tonight to the citizens of Phila

I am perfectly well and if I could hear from you I would be perfectly happy.
The Convention did fair to be all right and a good thing. A nobler body of men never met so sober thoughtful and firm. I certainly hope for great and good things of them.

Yours truly
Chas. Furling
