Dear wife - It is late at night and I am very tired indeed. I wish I could write you a long letter but cannot. I am appointed one of a committee to visit the Northern cities and the tomb of Mr. Lincoln we are <sup>going on</sup> ~~out~~ of a great electioneering tour after the President, but if we don't find "Mayors" in all the cities - Tomorrow morning I am to make a speech. The first one for North Carolina on the floor of the Convention.

I have not slept four hours for any one night
since I came here Do write to me. I am
half crazy about you God bless you and God bless you
Love to all —
All, Foyce
