"Whatsoever a man thinketh of the Republic, let him write it on his forehead."

Wife -

I start for Washington in great haste today. Haven't got time to come home or write more than a line.

Haven't the time to run over to the North place at once. Some grapes being too, the poor weather will permit Hiram will attend to the holes of I've ready to go, let him have fifty dollars & I am terribly blue.

God only knows what will become of everything. Do the best you can & I will try and be back soon

write to Doc Johnson and that I cannot come to his place on Saturday

God bless you and yours

Albin
