Mr. A. H. Lounge

Y<sup>r</sup> Sir

I send you
The petition of a woman for divorce which she wishes you to obtain for her as soon as may be suitable to your convenience. She is ~~not~~ not able to pay the costs of a court and it is a quicker manner of getting it from the convention - she is a woman of good character and without property and she wishes to be relieved from the bonds of matrimony as her husband is married to another woman as set forth in the petition - I send you the stamps for the costs of postage on a copy of the ordinance or divorce if obtained or the return of the petition if not, but which ever you send you will please send to me at the above named place as she goes on to attend to it for her, you will please do all you can for her and get her divorce if you included among the people of N.C. in convention assembled will act upon it; by so doing you will favor her very much.

Hoping to hear from it soon I am Sir your obdt. Serv<sup>t</sup>, W. W. King.
