

State of North Carolina
Wendell County. }

Whereas several suits were depending in said County, to-wit, J. H. Hoover and James Neighbors vs. J. H. Hoover and James Neighbors as follows; to-wit;— one action of debt brought by J. H. Hoover vs. James Neighbors in the Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions of said County, to November Term 1867; the other an action on the case brought by James Neighbors vs J. H. Hoover, returnable to Spring Term 1868 of the Superior Court of Law for said County;— and whereas various other matters of debt, account, & dispute existed between said parties; and whereas at Feb.
Term of the County Court in 1868; by a rule of the Court and the agreement of the parties the said first above mentioned, and by the agreement of the parties the other suit, and all other matters of controversy between them were referred to us as arbitrators;—

Therefore, we, in obedience to said rules and the said agreement of the said parties, have taken on ourselves the burden of said reference, and having heard, examined, and considered the evidence of both parties, do herby award, and finally determine said causes and matters in dispute, as follows

That the sum of several several ($17,000) is due from the said James Wright to the said B. G. Hoover and no more, and that judgment be rendered, accordingly, and we do further award, that judgment be rendered in favor of B. G.
Hoover against James Wright for the balance remaining before the date of the reference made and made to be caused in the said court; and that judgment be rendered against B. G. Hoover in the part to be caused before the reference, in favor of James Wright in the Superior Court of the said State of New York; and that the costs of the said cause be paid since the reference be paid to both parties in equal shares and that judgment be rendered accordingly.
