Dear Mrs. Tourgée:

Upon receipt of your last letter I addressed a note to Mr. Walker asking for an interview at your request.

This morning there came a copy of his note to you of the 24th. I cannot see where his project would adversely affect your interests & I hope you will entertain the idea. He expresses timidity for the brave operator he is. (My truly

Geo. S. Hulbert

You can see what Mr. Brett's views are & we have no more enterprising publisher than he.
