

...THE...
Twentieth Century
Magazine

On all news-stands, 5 cts.

EDITED BY JOHN BRISBEN WALKER

NEW YORK OFFICE :
500 FIFTH AVENUE, COR. 42^d ST.

CHICAGO OFFICE :
437 MARQUETTE BUILDING

"THE TWENTIETH CENTURY" MAGAZINE BUILDING, IRVINGTON, NEW YORK

500 Fifth Ave., New York, March 30th, 1906

Dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

I have your favor of the 28th. When you return to Maysville in May if you will send me the MS. of the dramatised "Fool's Errand" I will read it with much pleasure, although I do not feel much confidence in anything that MacKeye has done. I would suggest sending it by express instead of by mail.

It is possible that the interest aroused by the Clansman would justify the production of "A Fool's Errand" the coming season, but it is not at all certain. However it will do no harm to look it over, and if unwilling to consider the matter myself I may possibly be able to offer you a suggestion as to where you might place it.

Yours very truly,

John Ruschboudt

Mrs. G. W. Tourgee,

2015 Kalorama Avenue,

Washington, D.C.